COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors of NESTOR bid assistant editor Sarah Harris farewell, and we wish her the best of luck in her future endeavors.

We would like to notify those who utilize NESTOR's on-line searchable database that it has moved – the new Web address for the simple search is <http://classics.uc.edu:591/nesstor/nsearch.html>. For the detailed search, the new address is <http://classics.uc.edu:591/nesstor/nsearch2.html>. The old addresses may still be used, however, users will be automatically redirected to the appropriate location.

Electronic News and Notices

The following sites on the World Wide Web will be of immediate interest (note that the addresses must be entered exactly as they appear here):

<http://www.amjournalarch.org> – The Web page for the American Journal of Archaeology has links to the mission statement of the AJA, subscription information, guidelines for contributors, and the table of contents from the July 1997 issue to the current issue.

<http://www.duke.edu/web/ajareviews/> – The Web page for the Books Received and Reviewed of the AJA has guidelines for writing book reviews as well as lists of books received and reviewed from 1992 to the present.

<http://www.duke.edu/web/jyounger/Kapatija/> – The newly-updated and expanded Kapatija Web site is an annotated compilation of links to sites that have information concerning Aegean archaeology. These sites include electronic journals, archives, and newsletters, as well as Internet sites and home pages of university classics departments.

Announcements

Malcolm Wiener, President of the Board of the Institute for Aegean Prehistory (INSTAP), was awarded an honorary degree from the University of Tübingen in Germany on 23 October 1998. The doctorate was the first honorary degree awarded by the University in three years and the first ever to a prehistorian. On 20 November 1998, Dr. Wiener was also awarded an honorary degree by the University of Athens. The accompanying citations noted Dr. Wiener's contributions to the preservation of sites and publication of the research of others, as well as his own scholarly contributions to Mediterranean prehistory and Bronze Age chronology. Dr. Wiener has also recently been elected a Corresponding Member of the Austrian Archaeological Institute, a Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries in London, and a Vice President of the British School at Athens. A conference on Cypriot White Slip pottery was also held in his honor in Nicosia, Cyprus, on 29-30 October 1998. The Editors of NESTOR would like to congratulate Dr. Wiener on all of his recent awards and overall accomplishments.
