COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors of Nestor invite the submission of bibliographic items with publication dates prior to 1995 for inclusion in Addenda, an occasional section for older publications which have not previously been listed. References can be sent via e-mail; in the interests of accuracy, however, the editors of Nestor confirm all electronic references with hard copy. Photocopies, including title page, all publication information, table of contents, and first and last pages of each relevant article, can be sent directly to the postal address in the masthead. The staff of Nestor is always grateful for help in keeping our listings as complete and accurate as possible.

Calls for Papers

On 14-17 November 2001 CHACMOOL 2001 - An Odyssey Of Space will be hosted by the Department of Archaeology, University of Calgary, on the theme of space and how it is perceived from the archaeological record. A broad range of topics will be examined, including:

How Space is Defined - boundaries, enclosures

How Space is Used - traditional ways in which space is divided in households and communities, as well as working and living space

Public Space - plazas, courtyards, domestic vs. public, gender utilization

Landscapes - systems such as fields, irrigation

Archaeoastronomy – eg. The Nazca Lines

The Cosmos - How did ancient peoples map out space?

Mapping Space - remote sensing, GIS, and GPS

Ideological Concepts of Space

Sacred Space - perception of space, creation myths

Ancient Maritime Utilization of Space - underwater archaeology

The Temporalization of Space - the relationship between space and time

Geoarchaeological Investigations

Spatial Analysis - history and theory, trends, future

Ethnographic Studies of Space

Spatial Data Management within CRM

Spatial Relationships in Mortuary Settings

Sample session abstracts include:

Viewscapes

Tales from the Crypt: Spatial Relationships in Mortuary Settings

Spatial Perspectives on High-Density Settlement and Urban Living

Ancient Ritual Performances: Methodologies for Reconstruction

Session topics are due 15 February 2001; abstracts are due 15 March 2001. Late submissions will be accepted. Proposals can be sent to Department of Archaeology, University of Calgary, 2500 University Dr., NW Calgary, Alberta, Canada T2N 1N4; e-mail: chacmool@ucalgary.ca; fax: (403) 282-9567 or electronic forms may be submitted at http://www.ucalgary.ca/UofC/faculties/SS/ARKY/Dept\_Files/elecform.html. On 14-17 November 2001 the American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR) Annual Meetings will be held at the Omni Interlocken Resort, 500 Interlocken Blvd., Broomfield, CO 80021. Submissions by chairs of newly proposed Sections to the Program Committee chair are due 1 March 2001; submissions by participants of presentation proposals to Section Chairs are due 1 April 2001; submissions by section chairs of Program Summaries to the ASOR office are due 1 May 2001; applications for Lindstrom Student Service Scholarships and Dorot Foundation Travel Scholarships are due 15 September 2001; housing registration is due 15 October 2001; and the deadline for pre-registration for the Annual Meeting, for pre-registration refunds, and for membership in ASOR to qualify for participation in the Annual Meeting is 9 November 2001. Abstract and participation forms, pre-registration forms, a program guide, and information for section chairs are available at <http://www.asor.org>. A secure electronic registration form for the 2001 ASOR Annual Meeting is available at <https://www.bu.edu/asor/preregsecure2.html>

A call for papers to the ASOR Annual Meetings 2001 has been issued for two sessions devoted to Theoretical and Anthropological Approaches to Near Eastern Archaeology. Submissions are sought on a wide variety of approaches to the study of the past; in 2001 abstracts are particularly solicited concerning cultural and national identity in the past and the present, in papers concerning the politics of the past, intercultural connections, core-periphery relationships, peer-polity interaction, world systems theory, and the emergence of complex societies. Abstracts (maximum 250 words) for papers (20-25 minutes) should be e-mailed to both co-chairs, Louise Hitchcock (e-mail: lhitchco@ucla.edu; (until 15 June) post: Albright Institute of Archaeological Research, P.O. Box 19096, Jerusalem 91 190, Israel; fax: 972-2626-4424; (after 15 June) post: 1309 Palisades Dr. Pacific Palisades, CA 90272-2153; telephone: (310) 454-5098) and Robert D. Miller II (e-mail: romiller@msmary.edu; post: Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, MD 21727-7797; telephone: (301) 447-5781; fax: (301) 447-5636). The deadline for submission of paper proposals to the section co-chairs is 1 April 2001.

Announcement

The Trustees of the Michael Ventris Memorial Fund offer the award of the Michael Ventris Memorial Award for Mycenaean Studies 2001 in an amount up to £1500 to postgraduate students or young scholars who have obtained a doctorate within the past eight years in the field of Mycenaean civilisation or kindred subjects. Typewritten application should be sent not later than 23 February 2001 to The Secretary, Institute of Classical Studies, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, England; e-mail: mpacker@sas.ac.uk; fax: 020 8762 8722. The successful candidate will be required to submit a written report to the Advisory Committee on the work supported by the Award, which should be a specific project which may be part of a continuing programme of research. He or she may be invited to make a public presentation of the results at the Institute of Classical Studies. Application, which is open to candidates from all countries, should include age, qualifications, academic record, an outline of the proposed project, and the names and addresses of two referees, who should at the same time be asked to write independently in support of the application.

Obituary

The editors of Nestor are saddened to record the death of Emily Townsend Vermeule, professor for three decades at Harvard University. Professor Vermeule was a scholar of wide interests in Bronze Age Greece and Homeric studies and excavator of Toumba tou Skourou on Cyprus. The family has requested that no letters, phone calls, or flowers be sent.
