On 10 November 2005 applications are due for the American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) Digital Innovation Fellowships to support an academic year (up to $55,000 stipend) dedicated to work on a major scholarly project (up to $25,000 project expenses) that takes a digital form, including digital research archives, new media representations of extant data, innovative databases, and digital tools that further humanistic research. Candidates must be U.S. citizens with a PhD or equivalent in any field of the humanities or the humanistic social sciences. Applications must be submitted on-line, including the application form, proposal (maximum 10 pages), project plan (maximum 3 pages), budget plan, bibliography (maximum 3 pages), publications list (maximum 2 pages), 3 letters of reference, and institutional statement of support. Further information and application forms are available at <http://www.acls.org/difguide.htm>.

On 1 December 2005, 1 April 2006, and 1 September 2006 applications must be postmarked for the following fellowship to the American School of Classical Studies at Athens (ASCSA) for the academic year 2006–2007:

Wiener Laboratory Research Associateships: for well-defined research projects at the laboratory; up to $5,000.

On 15 January 2006 applications are due for both membership to ASCSA and the following fellowships for which students and scholars of Aegean prehistory may be eligible:

Regular Members: for graduate students in classical studies and ancient Mediterranean studies and related fields (e.g., history of art, anthropology, prehistory, etc.), who, preferably, have completed at least one year of graduate work; $10,000 plus room at Loring Hall on the grounds of ASCSA, board, and waiver of ASCSA fees.

The Jacob Hirsch: for a PhD candidate or a recent PhD from the U.S. or Israel whose dissertation or research project requires a lengthy residence in Greece; $10,000 plus room, board, and waiver of ASCSA fees.

Paul Rehak Memorial Traveling Fellowship: for graduate students or senior scholars for travel to or in Greece in order to conduct research; up to $1000.

Wiener Laboratory Fellowships: for graduate students or postdoctoral scholars working on well defined projects in skeletal, faunal, geoarchaeological, or environmental studies; $15,500 to $25,000.

Wiener Laboratory Travel Grants for Archaeological Science Research in Greece: for graduate students or postdoctoral scholars from North American institutions working on projects in archaeological science in Greece; travel grants of $1,500

Mellon (East and Central European) Research Fellowships: for scholars from Bulgaria, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Romania, and Slovakia in any field of classical or post-classical studies.

Solow Summer Research Fellowships 2006: for senior (postdoctoral) scholars working towards publication of material from sites excavated under the auspices of ASCSA; up to three months; up to $1,500 per month.

Summer Program Fellowships: for graduate and undergraduate students and for high school and college teachers. Two 6-week sessions will explore sites and museums in Greece.

On 21 February 2006 applications are due for:

School Advanced Fellowships: for students who have completed the Regular Program or one year as a Student Associate Member; $10,000 plus room, board, and waiver of ASCSA fees.

On 15 March 2006 applications are due for:

W. D. E. Coulson and Toni Cross Aegean Exchange Program: for Greek nationals, staff of the Ministry of Culture, doctoral candidates, and faculty members of Greek institutions of higher education for research in ancient, Byzantine, post-Byzantine, and Ottoman studies as well as studies of modern Greece and Turkey, to pursue research in Turkey under the auspices of the American Research Institute in Turkey (ARIT); $250 per week plus round-trip airfare.

Further information is available at <http://www.ascsa.edu.gr/> or from The American School of Classical Studies at Athens, 6-8 Charlton St., Princeton, NJ 08540-5232; telephone: 609-683-0800; fax: 609-924-0578; e-mail: ascsa@ascsa.org.

On 2 December 2005 applications are due for the Henri Frankfort Fellowship to the Warburg Institute, London for two or three months for research in the relations between the cultures of Mesopotamia, Egypt and the Aegean, and their influence on later civilizations or the intellectual and cultural history of the ancient Near East, with particular reference to society, art, architecture, religion, philosophy and science. Preference will normally be given to predoctoral candidates (having completed a minimum of one year of dissertation research) or postdoctoral scholars under 35 years of age on 1 October 2005; postdoctoral candidates, if they are over 35, must normally have been awarded their doctorate within the preceding academic year (after 1 October 2004.) Applications, including a curriculum vitae, research proposal (maximum two pages), particulars of any grants for the same subject, names and addresses of referees (maximum three) whose letters of should reach the Director by 2 December 2005, and samples of published or written work, may be sent by post or fax to the Warburg Institute, Woburn Square, London WC1H 0AB; fax: (020)-7862-8955. Further information is available at <http://www2.sas.ac.uk/warburg/> or from the Secretary and Registrar of the Warburg Institute, e-mail: Anita.Pollard@sas.ac.uk.

On 1 January 2006 applications are due for the Margo Tytus Visiting Scholars Program in the fields of archaeology, history, or philology at the University of Cincinnati Classics Department, tenable during the academic year from 1 October 2006 through 10 June 2007. Tytus Fellows will ordinarily be at least five years beyond receipt of the PhD, and will come to Cincinnati to pursue their own research. The minimum and maximum terms for Long Term Fellows are 1-3 academic quarters (two and a half months each) during the academic year; Short Term Fellows will reside in Cincinnati for 1 to 2 months during the academic year. Both categories of Tytus Fellows will receive housing, a transportation allowance, and office space; a monthly stipend of $1,000 is additionally provided for Long Term Fellows. Further information on the resources of the University of Cincinnati Burnham Classics Library, and on-line application forms are available at <http://classics.uc.edu/tytus>, or from the Director, Margo Tytus Visiting Scholars Program, Department of Classics, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, OH 45221-0226; e-mail: secretary@classics.uc.edu.

On 13 January 2006 applications are due for The Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC) Multi-Country Research Fellowship Program For Advanced Multi-Country Research 2005-2006 to provide support (up to $9,000) for U.S. doctoral candidates and senior scholars conducting research on broad questions of multi-country significance in the fields of the humanities, social sciences, and related natural sciences that requires travel to several countries, at least one of which hosts a participating American overseas research center. Further information and applications are available at <http://www.caorc.org>.

On 1 February 2006 applications are due for the following two fellowships at the Cyprus American Archaeological Research Institute (CAARI) in Nicosia, Cyprus for the academic year 2006–2007:

The Stuart Swiny and Helena Wilde Swiny Fellowship: for graduate students of any nationality enrolled in a U.S. college or university to pursue a research project relevant to an ongoing field project in Cyprus.

The Anita Cecil O'Donovan Fellowship: for graduate students of any nationality enrolled in the U.S. or elsewhere to pursue research on a project relevant to the archaeology of Cyprus. Both grants above award $750 to fund a period of research time in residence at CAARI and to help defray costs of travel. Applications must include a project statement, expected schedule of work, budget, curriculum vitae, and two letters of recommendation. Applications should be sent to CAARI at Boston University, 656 Beacon Street, Fifth Floor, Boston, MA 02215; fax: 617-353-6575; e-mail: caari@bu.edu

On 15 April 2006 applications are due for:

The CAARI Senior Scholar in Residence: for an established scholar of any nationality who commits to stay at least 30 days in succession at CAARI, ideally in the summer, and to be available in evenings and weekends to younger scholars working there; fluency in English and a PhD in archaeology or ancillary field a minimum of 5 years prior to residency are required; 50% discount for 30 days on normal hostel cost at CAARI. Applications, including a letter detailing the applicant's proposed schedule and a summary curriculum vitae, should be sent to Director, CAARI, 11 Andreas Demetriou St., 1066 Nicosia, Cyprus.

Further information is available at <http://www.caari.org/>.

Calls for Papers

On 31 December 2005 abstracts (maximum 250 words) are due from graduate students and young researchers for the tenth annual Symposium On Mediterranean Archaeology (SOMA 2006), to take place on 9-11 April 2006 in Ankara, Turkey, in collaboration of Ankara and Başkent universities. Papers (20 minutes) on any aspect of Mediterranean archaeology are invited, without limitation on the subject and the period. The conference language will be English.
