Grants and Fellowships

On 20 February 2009 applications are due for the 2009 Michael Ventris Memorial Award for Mycenaean Studies of up to £2000, to be awarded to postgraduate students or young scholars who have obtained a doctorate within the past five years in the field of Mycenaean civilization or kindred subjects, to promote research in (1) Linear B and other Bronze Age scripts of the Aegean and Cyprus and their historical and cultural connections, or (2) all other aspects of the Bronze Age of the Aegean and Cyprus. Typewritten application (not to exceed 6 single-sided A4 pages) should be sent to the Secretary, Institute of Classical Studies, Senate House North Block Room 312, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, United Kingdom. Applications should include age, qualifications, academic record, an outline of the proposed work, and the names and addresses of two referees, who should at the same time be asked to write independently in support of the application. Further information is available at http://icls.sas.ac.uk/institute/awards/michael_ventris.html.

Calls for Papers

On 1 February, 2009 new section proposals are due for the American Schools of Oriental Research Annual Meetings (ASOR 2009), to be held in New Orleans, Louisiana from 18-21 November 2009. Individuals interested in organizing new academic sections are encouraged first to contact the Program Committee Co-Chairs: Andrew M. Smith II (amsii@gwu.edu) and Elise A. Friedland (efried@gwu.edu). On 1 March 2009 preregistration payment to the ASOR office and abstracts for individual submissions (250 words maximum) are due via the ASOR website, whence they will be forwarded to the chair of the section of the Section listed on the form; applicants are urged to contact the Section Chair in advance to determine the theme or other specific requirements of the Section, and all questions should be addressed to the Section Chair. Presentations which do not fit into established sections or new sections are also invited, and should be designated as for the "Individual Submission" section on the online Participation/Abstract form; questions may be addressed to Laura Mazow, 225 Flanagan, Department of Anthropology, East Carolina University, Greenville, NC 27858; e-mail: mazowl@ecu.edu. On 24 August 2009 applications for Lindstrom Student Service Scholarships and Dorot Annual Meeting Travel Scholarships are due. Further information, including rules for participation, sections planned for ASOR 2009, format of and procedure for submitting abstracts, and all necessary forms are available at <http://www.asor.org>.

On 6 February 2009 abstracts are due for the Association of Social Anthropologists Conference 2009 (ASA09): Anthropological and archaeological imaginations: past, present and future, to be held on 6-9 April 2009 at the University of Bristol, UK. Papers must be proposed to a specific panel; the list of panels, the online paper proposal form (including paper title, a 300-character abstract, and a 250-word abstract), and further information are available at <http://www.theasa.org/conferences/asa09/>.

On 15 March 2009 abstracts are due for the 28th Conference of the International Commission on the Anthropology of Food (ICAF): Fish and Seafood - Anthropological and Nutritional Perspectives, to be held on 31 May - 6 June 2009 in Kamilari, Crete, Greece. Abstracts (one page) and a brief c.v. should be submitted to the conference co-chair, Prof. Nikolaos I. Xirotiris, Laboratory of Anthropology Demokritos University of Thrace Komotini; e-mail xirot@he.duth.gr. Submissions should be approximately 25-30 minutes reading time, and should be prepared for publication. Further information is available at <http://erl.orn.mpg.de/~icaf/>. The meeting aims to provide a multidisciplinary approach to the role of fish and seafood in the human diet from ancient times to the present, including, but not necessarily restricted to, the following themes:

- Fish and seafood as a dietary component
- Fish biology in relation to nutritional value
- Fish and palaeodiets
- Fish and seafood in archaeology and art
- Symbolic and ideological uses of fish
- Impact of fish and seafood consumption on health
- Culinary aspects of fish and preservation techniques
- Safety aspects of fish consumption
- The problem of fish availability in the near future
- Industrial production of fish
